

BASEBALL FAN:

Here is your APBA Major League Baseball Game. We urge you to examine it carefully and read the instructions thoroughly, so you may learn to appreciate fully the big league realism of APBA and capture its fascination. APBA never grows old for the baseball enthusiast and it will give you countless hours of enjoyment. We welcome you to write us at any time, if you have questions or seek additional information about the APBA Major League Baseball Game, but do not write us regarding the interpretation of baseball rules or scoring procedures. This information can be found in complete detail in the official baseball rule book.

APBA Game Company, Inc.

The following named players are contained in the 1968 edition of the APBA Major League Baseball Game. WE WILL NOT REPLY TO ANY CORRESPONDENCE WHICH PROPOSES TO QUESTION OUR SELECTION OF THE PLAYERS WHICH COMPRISE THE TEAMS AS LISTED BELOW. The batting orders may be arranged in any number of sequences without affecting individual performances of any of the players. These were the batting orders most frequently used in 1967:

*Used mostly or exclusively as a relief pitcher. Should be used seldom or not at all as a starter.

For most realistic results the frequency of use of starting pitchers should be determined by the order of their listings above, not by the grade ratings on their cards.

Your name has been placed on our mailing list, provided the game was purchased in your name. IF YOU RECEIVED YOUR GAME AS A GIFT, OR IF FOR ANY REASON IT WAS NOT PURCHASED IN YOUR NAME, PLEASE SEND US YOUR NAME AND ADDRESS AND ALSO THE NAME AND ADDRESS OF THE PERSON IN WHOSE NAME IT WAS PURCHASED.

If you keep us advised of any change in your address, you will be notified every year, in January, when the new players' cards are available. We should have these notices of address changes no later than November 1st. Please do not write us to inquire about the new year's cards, unless you have not received the notice of their availability by March 1st of the new year, and please do not remit your order for new cards unless you have first received the new card notice giving the details for ordering them.
