1995 NPSL PLAYOFFS KICK OFF TUESDAY

DETROIT QUALIFIES ON LAST DAY OF SEASON

The 1995 NPSL Playoffs kick off on Tuesday night, following a season that saw the last playoff spot and playoff positioning finalized on the last day of the season. Here is a quick look at the final 1994-95 NPSL regular season standings (playoff teams designated with an *):

AMERICAN DIVISION	NATIONAL DIVISION
1. Cleveland Crunch (30-10)*	1. St. Louis Ambush (30-10)*
2. Harrisburg Heat (23-17)*	2. Kansas City Attack (29-11)*
3. Baltimore Spirit (23-17)*	3. Milwaukee Wave (23-17)*
4. Buffalo Blizzard (20-20)*	4. Detroit Rockers (18-22)*
5. Dayton Dynamo (15-25)	5. Wichita Wings (17-23)
6. Canton Invaders (6-34)	6. Chicago Power (6-34)

The race for the eighth and final playoff spot went down to the final day of the season (Sunday) as the St. Louis Ambush downed visiting Wichita 12-10, to eliminate the Wings from the playoff hunt and help qualify the Detroit Rockers for the 1995 NPSL Championship Playoffs. Also with the victory, the Ambush took first overall in the NPSL and the National Division with a 30-10 record, giving St. Louis home field advantage throughout the playoffs and the division title for the second straight season. The Cleveland Crunch captured the American Division crown, also with a 30-10 mark, but lose the tiebreaker for home field advantage to St. Louis due to the Ambush winning the head to head regular season series, two games to one.

The eight teams that have qualified for post-season action will pair off in best-of-three game Division Semi-Finals, with the winners advancing to the best-of-five game Division Finals. The Division Playoff champions will meet in the best-of seven game NPSL Finals. Last year, the Division Finals were also a best-of-three game affair while the Finals were a best-of-five game series. The playoff pairings (all times listed for games are local time; if necessary marked with an *):

1995 NPSL PLAYOFF CAPSULES

AMERICAN DIVISION SEMI-FINAL SERIES "A"

Cleveland Crunch (30-10, 1st place) versus Buffalo Blizzard (20-20, 4th place)

1994-95 Regular Season Series: Cleveland Wins Series 5-1; Crunch outscored Blizzard, 115-79.
Crunch Update: Led by the NPSL's highest scoring pair, the "Dynamo Duo" of Hector Marinaro (255 points, 1st NPSL) and Zoran Karic (241 points, 2nd NPSL) and Rookie-of-the-Year candidate, forward Henri Gutierrez (114 points, 17th NPSL). All-Star goalkeeper Otto Orf mans the nets with a 13.47 points against per game average. Cleveland's 742 points (18.6 points per game) this season, broke the NPSL record for most points in a season, set in 1993-94 by the Crunch.
Crunch By Ten Game Segments: 9-1, 6-4, 7-3, 8-2
Blizzard Update: All-Star forward Paul Dougherty led Buffalo attack with 171 points (6th overall in the NPSL) and is joined by the Pikuzinski brothers, All-Star forward Rudy and All-Star midfielder Randy. Rudy is the NPSL's all-time leading goal scorer with 350 goals. Jeff Robben (formerly with St. Louis) and Rob Marinaro (formerly with Chicago and Cleveland) share the goalkeeping duties. Former U.S. National Team forward Jean Harbor, signed just prior to the March 2nd signing deadline, has yet to make a major impact playing only in restart situations.
Blizzard by Ten Game Segments: 4-6, 6-4, 4-6, 6-4
Series "A" Notes: Teams have met the past two years in the Division Semi-Finals with Cleveland winning both series two games to one. Head coach Gary Hindley has led the Crunch to two straight NPSL Finals, winning the title last season (Crunch regular season coaching record of 78-42; playoff record: 13-8). Blizzard is coached by Jim May, who took over early in the season and has posted an 19-18 record.

AMERICAN DIVISION SEMI-FINAL SERIES "B"

Harrisburg Heat (23-17, 2nd place) versus Baltimore Spirit (23-17, 3rd place)

1994-95 Season Series: Tied at 3-3; Heat outscored Spirit, 99-87.
Heat Update: Heat has four players who scored 100 plus points this season: Danny Kelly (4-34-21-30=131), Mark Pulisic (0-34-11-34=113), David Bascome (6-28-8-25=107) and Bill Becher (0-32-2-37=102). All-Star goalkeeper Scoop Stanisic posted a 15-8 record and 12.62 points against average while backup Doug Petras was 8-7 with a 12.73 points against average.
Heat By Ten Game Segments: 6-4, 5-5, 7-3, 5-5.
Spirit Update: Baltimore heads into the playoffs with a five game losing skid. All-Star Kevin Sloan (165 points), forward Jon Parry (132 points) and midfielder Franklin McIntosh (110 points) lead the offense. McIntosh, the NPSL's all-time leading point scorer, played with Harrisburg the last two seasons and was instrumental in the upset series wins over the Spirit. Cris Vaccaro (14.02 points allowed per game) and Joe Mallia (14.34 points allowed per game) share the goalkeeping duties.
Spirit By Ten Game Segments: 7-3, 6-4, 7-3, 3-7.
Series "B" Notes: Third time that these two teams are meeting in the Division Semi-Finals. Heat swept both series 2-0. Dave MacWilliams is in his first year as Spirit head coach. Heat head coach Jim Pollihan is in his fourth season in Harrisburg (Heat regular season coaching record of 88-72; playoff record of 6-6).

NATIONAL DIVISION SEMI-FINAL SERIES "C"

St. Louis Ambush (30-10, 1st place) versus Detroit Rockers (18-22, 4th place)

1994-95 Season Series: St. Louis Wins Series, 4-0; Ambush outscored Rockers, 74-31.
Ambush Update: Ambush wins its second straight National Division title and look to return to the NPSL Finals after losing the championship to Cleveland last April. Four 100-point scorers lead the second highest scoring team in the NPSL. They are: Mark Moser (195 pts.), Joe Reiniger (133 pts.), Steve Maurer (114 pts.) and Kevin Hundelt (106 pts.). Five-time NPSL Goalkeeper-of-the-Year Jamie Swanner mans the nets with an 11.63 points allowed per game average and a 25-8 record.
Ambush By Ten Game Segments: 8-2, 8-2, 7-3, 7-3

Rockers Update: Detroit won eight in a row to qualify for the post-season. All-purpose defender/midfielder/sixth attacker Sean Bowers led the team at both ends with 148 points and 172 blocks, an NPSL record for most blocks in a season. Midfielder/head coach Pato Margetic chipped in with 147 points, including 67 assists, while Bryan Finnerty is the workhorse goalkeeper with a 17-18 record and 12.86 points allowed per game average. Rockers have allowed just 59 points in their last eight contests for an amazing 7.38 points per game.
Rockers By Ten Game Segments: 4-6, 1-9, 4-6, 9-1
Series "C" Notes: A series pitting a pair of player/head coaches. For St. Louis, defender Daryl Doran is in his third season as coach of the Ambush and has led the team to the 1994 NPSL Finals and two National Division regular season crowns (Ambush regular season coaching record: 67-37; playoffs: 8-6). Rockers midfielder Pato Margetic took over as coach at mid-season after serving in the dual role from 1990-1994 in Chicago where he won the 1990-91 NPSL title (Rockers coaching record: 14-9; overall NPSL coaching record: 104-79; playoffs: 6-4). Ambush defeated Rockers in two-game sweep of the National Division Finals last year.

NATIONAL DIVISION SEMI-FINAL SERIES "D"
Kansas City Attack (29-11, 2nd place) versus Milwaukee Wave (23-17, 3rd place)

1994-95 Season Series: Milwaukee Wins Series 3-1; Wave outscored Attack, 53-47.
Attack Update: Kansas City rebounded with the best turnaround in NPSL history by going from a 14-26 record in 1993-94, to a 29-11 mark this season; a 15 game swing. Won the NPSL title in 1992-93 and have core of veterans from that club leading this year's version, including defenders Jim Schwab and Iain Fraser and midfielders Wes Wade (153 pts.) and Brian Haynes (107 pts.). Other 100-point scorers include off-season forward acquisitions Goran Hunjak (from Baltimore) who scored a KC team record 181 points, and Lee Tschantret (from Harrisburg), who talled a career high 100 points. Goalkeeper Warren Westcoat has shined in the number one role this season with a 19-7 record and 10.45 points allowed per game average.
Attack By Ten Game Segments: 6-4, 9-1, 6-4, 8-2
Wave Update: Milwaukee improved on its 20-20 record last season with an offense built around the big three-point-goal. Michael King tied an NPSL record with 12 3PG's this season in leading the Wave to an NPSL record of 48 treys. King led the Wave attack with 165 points (12-45-4-35=165). Victor Nogueira continues his goalkeeper excellence with a 20-14 record and league leading 10.30 points allowed per game average. Defender Matt Knowles adds his 94 points to the offense.
Wave By Ten Game Segments: 5-5, 5-5, 6-4, 7-3.
Series "D" Notes: First playoff meeting between these two teams. Attack won NPSL title in 1992-93 under then first-year coach Zoran Savic. Savic holds a 69-51 regular season coaching record and a 7-3 mark in the playoffs. His counterpart, Keith Tozer, has a 204-143 NPSL regular season coaching record (60-60 in three seasons with the Wave) and is 14-15 in the playoffs (1-2 with the Wave).

DETROIT'S KIRK NAMED PLAYER OF THE WEEK

With two four-goal performances this week, Detroit Rockers forward Joey Kirk has been named NPSL Player of the Week for the week ending March 26th. Kirk helped the Rockers win their seventh and eighth straight games in victories in Chicago (20-11) on Monday and at home Saturday night against Baltimore (9-6). Against the Power, Kirk tallied four two-point goals, while versus the Spirit, Kirk registered a two-pointer and three one-pointers (shootout goal and two power play tallies). Kirk, who represented Detroit at the 1995 NPSL All-Star Game in Buffalo, finished the 1994-95 season with 97 points, third best on the Rockers with 27 two-pointers, 16 one-pointers, and 27 assists.

ROCKERS' FINNERTY NAMED PLAYER OF THE MONTH

Based on an outstanding month long performance in goal where he posted a perfect 8-0 record, Detroit Rockers goalkeeper Bryan Finnerty has been named the NPSL Player of the Month. During March, the All-Star goalkeeper allowed just 58 points for a phenomenal average of just 7.26 points allowed per game and helped the Rockers sneak into the 1995 Playoffs. Finnerty's outstanding play in goal helped improve his overall season record from 9-18 to 17-18 and drop his points against average from 14.59 going into the month of March to 12.86. Finnerty finishes the season ranked fifth in the NPSL in points allowed per game. A two-time All-Star and former rookie-of-the-Year (1990-91), Finnerty earned Third Team All-NPSL honors last season.

ESPN2 AND ESPN TO CARRY NPSL PLAYOFF CONTESTS

ESPN2 will continue its Game of the Week coverage of the NPSL with the broadcast of divisional playoff games the next three Sundays. Game Two of the Buffalo Blizzard versus Cleveland Crunch American Division Semi-Final series will be broadcast live this Sunday, April 2nd, beginning at 3:00 PM ET from the CSU Convocation Center. Coverage will continue the next two Sundays with games broadcast at 3:00 PM ET on April 9th and 1:00 PM ET on April 16th. A rebroadcast of this Sunday's Blizzard--Crunch game will take place on Monday, April 3rd at 2:00 PM ET, also on ESPN2.

ESPN will broadcast every game of the NPSL Finals. A November 4th regular season contest and the 1995 NPSL All-Star Game were broadcast earlier this season on ESPN.

NEWS AND NOTES

Both Cleveland and St. Louis reached the 30-win mark to become the seventh and eighth teams to do so in NPSL history. All-time records for best and worst records in a season are:

BEST SEASON RECORD		W-L
Canton Invaders	1989-90	36-4
Canton Invaders	1985-86	33-7
Canton Invaders	1984-85	31-9
Canton Invaders	1986-87	31-11
Louisville Thunder	1985-86	31-9
Chicago Power	1991-92	30-10
St. Louis Ambush	1994-95	30-10
Cleveland Crunch	1994-95	30-10

WORST SEASON RECORD		W-L
New York Kick	1990-91	3-37
Denver Thunder	1992-93	3-37
Memphis Rogues	1989-90	6-34
Canton Invaders	1994-95	6-34
Chicago Power	1994-95	6-34
Tulsa Ambush	1991-92	7-33

National Division teams combined for a 51-45 edge in contests against American Division teams.

How important is home field advantage in the playoffs? During the past two years, home teams have won .667 of all playoff games (26 out of 39 games). During the 1994-95 regular season, home clubs have a winning percentage of .613 (141-89). Throughout the playoffs, the team with the best regular season record earns home field advantage.

The NPSL's average attendance for the 1994-95 season finished at 5,345 per game. Attendance highlights for the season included: the Harrisburg Heat playing in front of five standing room only crowds at the 7,530 seat State Farm Show Arena; a record for a weekday morning game when 12,134 fans were on hand for the Cleveland at Buffalo contest on Thursday, February 16th; and 6,000 plus average attendance for the St. Louis Ambush (7,881), Cleveland Crunch (7,579), Buffalo Blizzard (7,329), Milwaukee Wave (7,108) and Harrisburg Heat (6,003).

Hector Marinaro captured his second NPSL scoring title with a career high 255 points, just 14 points ahead of teammate Zoran Karic, who was the defending scoring champ and League MVP. Marinaro led all goal scorers with 99 goals, just below the 100 and 113 season scoring totals compiled the past two seasons. Marinaro also led the NPSL in shots on goal with 378. Meanwhile, Karic led the NPSL in assists with 96. In three NPSL seasons, Marinaro has tallied 312 goals and 146 assists for 756 points, while Karic has registered 241 goals and 272 assists for 730 points.

NPSL teams combined to score 28.39 points per game (6,816 points in 240 games). Teams also combined for 16,690 shots for an all-time high average of 69.5 shots on goal per contest, bettering last season's record of 68.8 shots on goal per game. The Cleveland Crunch, with 18.6 points per game (742 total points) broke its team scoring record for the third season in a row. Milwaukee compiled the best defense by allowing just 459 points this season (11.5 points allowed per game) bettering Kansas City by just one point, and St. Louis by six points.

Going for Threeeeeeeeeeeeeee! Setting an NPSL team season record for most three-point-goals in a season were the Milwaukee Wave. The Wave's 48 three-point-goals shattered the previous mark of 24 3PG's set by Cleveland in 1992-93. Overall, NPSL teams combined for 344 three-pointers for 1.43 3PG's per game bettering the all-time mark of .73 3PG per game in 1992-93. Also, an all-time high of 13 percent of all goals scored were three-pointers. 76 percent of all goals scored were two-pointers, and 13.9 percent were one-pointers, compared to last season's totals of 4.4% 3PG's, 81.1% 2PG's and 14.5% 1PG's.

The Cleveland Crunch set an NPSL record for best season long power play percentage by capitalizing on 56.33 percent of their man advantage situations (40 goals in of 71 opportunities). The previous record was 53.33 percent last season (32 goals in 60 attempts). Milwaukee's "No Goal Patrol" of Rick Mobley, Steve Morris, Billy Duranceau and Don Gramenz (subs: Michael King and Matt Knowles) led the NPSL from start to finish by allowing just 14 goals in 56 attempts for a 75 percent penalty killing efficiency.

Setting NPSL individual season long records were: Detroit Rockers midfielder/defender Sean Bowers for most blocks in a season with 172. Cleveland's Otto Orf registered 19 assists this season to set a new mark for most assists by a goalkeeper. St. Louis Ambush forward Mark Moser tallied 10 game winning goals to set an NPSL record for most game winners in a single campaign.

On the career leader's lists, Detroit Rockers midfielder Pato Margetic continues to lead the NPSL all-time playmaker list with 339 assists. Baltimore Spirit midfielder Franklin McIntosh added five points this week to his all-time NPSL high of 853 points scored. Cleveland's Tim Tyma increased his NPSL career records for games played (394), blocks (928) and penalty minutes (316). Teammate Zoran Karic's all-time NPSL record for consecutive games scoring a point stands at 100. Buffalo Blizzard forward Rudy Pikuzinski is atop the all-time goal scoring list with 350 goals.

The NPSL continued its three-referees on the field experiment in a trio of regular season games during the last eight days of the season, in addition to its debut at the 1995 All-Star Game in Buffalo. The concept calls for three referees on the field, with all having the authority to call fouls, violations, out of bounds etc., but only the senior referee having the authority to call penal time penalties resulting in shootouts. The concept will be reviewed for possible implementation for the 1995-96 season.

In the 240 games this regular season, a total of 106 games were decided by five or fewer points. Here is a look at the points difference (PD) for all games during the 1994-95 regular season:

PD	TOTAL	PD	TOTAL	PD	TOTAL	PD	TOTAL
1	29	8	16	15	3	22	1
2	24	9	16	16	9	23	1
3	21	10	10	17	4	24	0
4	14	11	12	18	4	25	2
5	18	12	8	19	1	28	1
6	17	13	9	20	1	30	1
7	14	14	3	21	1

There were a total of 26 100-point scorers this season with Harrisburg, Kansas City and St. Louis having four each. Wichita was the only club without a 100-point scorer.

THIS WEEK AROUND THE AMERICAN DIVISION

CLEVELAND CRUNCH (30-10): Cleveland downed its first round playoff opponent Buffalo, 22-14, Friday night before 8,952 at the CSU Convocation Center. After trailing 14-12 early in the fourth quarter, the Crunch scored five unanswered goals for the win. Zoran Karic tallied two goals (3PG, 1PG) and added five assists, while Hector Marinaro tallied four two-pointers, Andy Schmetzer notched three goals (two 2PG's and 1PG) and Rookie-of-the-Year candidate Henri Gutierrez scored twice (2PG, 1PG). Saturday in Wichita, the Crunch's seven game win streak came to a screeching halt with a 22-11 loss to the Wings. Marinaro scored four two-pointers and added an assist, but came up one shy of his third consecutive 100-goal season. Leading Scorer: Hector Marinaro (11-81-7-53=255).

HARRISBURG HEAT (23-17): The Heat captured second place with a convincing 20-4 win over visiting Dayton Saturday night to sweep the season series against the Dynamo, six wins to none. Bill Becher scored three 2PG's and Tarik Walker added a pair of goals (both 2PG's) leading the Heat to its 15th home win. With Baltimore's loss in Detroit earlier on Saturday, the Heat clinched second place, winning the tiebreaker base on more points in head-to-head games with the Spirit. Sunday in Buffalo, the Heat dropped a 16-9 decision to split its four-game season series with the playoff bound Blizzard. Leading Scorer: Danny Kelly (4-34-21-30=131).

BALTIMORE SPIRIT (23-17): Baltimore lost a pair of road games to drop into third place and extend its losing skid to five. Friday night in St. Louis, the Spirit squandered an 18-14 lead late in the fourth quarter to lose 20-18 on a last minute Ambush goal. All-Star forward Kevin Sloan and target man Brad Smith paced the attack with a pair of two-pointers each. Saturday in Detroit, the Spirit lost a 9-6 decision as it once again was unable to hold onto a fourth quarter lead. Sloan scored two times (2PG, 1PG) for Baltimore, who face the Heat for the third straight season in the first round of the playoffs. Leading Scorer: Kevin Sloan (5-50-18-32=165).

BUFFALO BLIZZARD (20-20): The Blizzard without Rudy Pikuzinski (serving a suspension) and Jean Harbor (injured) in the frontline split its two games, losing in Cleveland on Friday night (22-14) and winning at home Sunday afternoon (16-9) against Harrisburg before 10,021. All-Star forward Paul Dougherty tallied the "cycle" against the Crunch (3PG, 2PG, 1PG, one assist), while Andy Crawford added two 2PG's and an assist, and Randy Pikuzinski had three assists. Sunday, Crawford continued his scoring tear with four two-point-goals and Randy Pikuzinski once again had three assists. Leading Scorer: Paul Dougherty (6-47-28-31=171).

DAYTON DYNAMO (15-25): The Dynamo closed out its last season in Dayton with a 20-5 loss at Harrisburg Saturday night. The club is relocating to Cincinnati beginning with the 1995-96 season with the Cincinnati Cyclones of the International Hockey League acquiring controlling interest in the organization. Player/head coach Tony Bono tallied the game's first goal at 1:17 of the first quarter, but it was all downhill from there, as the Heat outscored the Dynamo ten goals to one the rest of the way. It is the fourth straight season that Dayton failed to qualify for the playoffs after two straight appearances in the NPSL Finals in 1990 and 1991. Leading Scorer: Dennis Brose (8-62-16-27=191).

CANTON INVADERS (6-34): The Invaders worst season in 11 years came to a close in Milwaukee Saturday afternoon, as the Wave downed Canton 29-4. The Invaders allowed a league high 18.8 points per game while scoring just 11.1 per contest. Leading Scorer: Marcelo Carrera (5-34-10-38=131).

THIS WEEK AROUND THE NATIONAL DIVISION

ST. LOUIS AMBUSH (30-10): The Ambush captured its second straight National Division regular season title on Friday night and the NPSL's overall title, also for the second straight season, with a win on Sunday. Friday night against the Baltimore Spirit, before 11,936 at the Kiel Center, the Ambush pulled off some fourth quarter heroics, coming from 18-14 down to win 20-18 on Joe Reiniger's two-point-goal with 54 seconds remaining. For Reiniger, it was his fourth 2PG of the game to go along with an assist, while player/head coach Daryl Doran and Mark Moser each scored a pair of 2PG's. Sunday afternoon, the Ambush eliminated Wichita from the post-season playoffs with a 12-10 win as Reiniger and Moser each scored a pair of two-pointers. Reiniger added an assist, while one of Moser's goals was the game winner, to give him an NPSL season record of 10 game winners, breaking a record shared by ESPN/ESPN2 soccer analyst Art Kramer (9 in 1986-87 with Canton). Leading Scorer: Mark Moser (6-68-15-26=195).

KANSAS CITY ATTACK (29-11): The Attack was idle this week and prepared for its first round playoff encounter with the Milwaukee Wave that begins on Tuesday in Milwaukee. Leading Scorer: Goran Hunjak (3-4-1-52=181).

MILWAUKEE WAVE (22-17): The Wave won a pair of afternoon home contests this weekend to head into the playoffs with a two-game win streak and the club's best regular season record since 1990-91 (also 23-17). Saturday before 8,792 against Canton, the Wave was led by Michael King's five 2PG's and two goals each from Shane Steadman (both 2PG's), Matt Knowles (both 2PG's) and Steve Morris (3PG, 2PG). Sunday, the Wave downed Chicago 20-15 before 10,547 at the Bradley Center, as King (all 2PG's) and Don D'Ambra (3PG, two 2PG's)both scored three times. For the season, the Wave tallied a league record 48 three-point-goals, shattering the previous mark of 24 set by Cleveland in 1992-93. The Wave opens the playoffs on Tuesday against Kansas City at the Mecca, the team's home prior to moving into the Bradley Center in the late 80's. The Bradley Center is unavailable this week forcing Milwaukee to open the playoffs at the Mecca. Leading Scorer: Michael King (12-45-4-35=165).

DETROIT ROCKERS (18-22): The Rockers, with a late season eight game win streak, sneak into the playoffs. Detroit defeated Chicago (20-11 on Monday in Chicago) and Baltimore (9-6 at home Saturday) and then had to wait and see Wichita lose in St. Louis on Sunday to qualify for post-season play for the second straight season and fourth time in the club's five year history. Joey Kirk scored four goals in both games (all 2PG's versus Chicago and a 2PG and three 1PG's against Baltimore) to lead the Rockers' offense. Bryan Finnerty collected the wins in goal to improve his record to 17-18 on the season, and 8-0 during the month of March. Detroit heads into the playoffs with the hottest streak in the NPSL: eight straight wins and 9-1 in its last ten games. Leading Scorer: Sean Bowers (11-37-10-31=148).

WICHITA WINGS (17-23): Buoyed by the return of Kris Peat in goal, the Wings kept their playoff hopes alive with a 22-11 win over visiting Cleveland on Saturday night, before losing 12-10 in St. Louis on Sunday afternoon to fall out of the playoffs for the first time in their three year history in the NPSL. Saturday, John Garvey tallied five 2PG's, while player/head coach Kim Roentved scored a three-pointer and two-pointer. Sunday, Eddie Henderson's pair of 2PG's and an assist were not enough as Wichita was eliminated from the playoffs. Leading Scorer: Kim Roentved (7-14-3-45=97)

CHICAGO POWER (6-34): Before its largest Rosemont Horizon crowd of the season (5,507), the Power fell short to a hot Detroit team 20-11, despite a three goal performance by Jon Szczepanski (two 2PG's, 1PG). Sunday at Milwaukee, Chicago lost its ninth in a row, 20-15, to the Wave as it foughtback from a 16-3 deficit to narrow the lead to three before finally losing by five. Seven different Power players scored, led by Steve Snow's two-pointer and one-pointer. Leading Scorer: Ken Snow (1-1-4-27=136).
